Deadline of Dec. 12 Reportedly Is Set For Hospital Plans

A meeting of those involved in the proposed building of a new 30-bed Hancock County Hospital was Wednesday at Jackson with Foster Fowler, executive chairman of the Mississippi Commission on Hospital Care.

Present were the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, board attorney Sam L. Favre, hospital administrator Edgar Little, hospital staff member Dr. A. K. Martinovich Jr., Gulfport architect Wilfred Dawson and engineers D. B. Shourds, E. W. Peneguy and Mr. Malchour.

The Board of Supervisors recessed a meeting Monday until Friday when Mr. Fowler, contacted by telephone, advised that 5 Supervisors R. G. Hubbard Jr. and Mr. Favre that the supposedly final plans sent last week by Mr. Dawson to the Commission on Hospital Care were inadequate to submit to the Hill-Burton commission. Funds for the hospital have been granted through the Hill-Burton act but they cannot actually be turned over to the county until the plans are approved finally.

Mr. Fowler reportedly told the group at Wednesday's meeting that the architect and engineers could be released from their duties if the plans were not completed and submitted to him by Dec. 12.

There is a possibility, authorities say, that plans for a 30-bed hospital now under construction at Monticello will be used as a basis for design of a Hancock County hospital if Mr. Dawson's plans are not completed by the date set.

Fate of the new hospital will be discussed at a meeting of the state commission Monday.

Mr. Favre said Monday that Mr. Fowler had agreed to inspect Mr. Dawson's submitted plans more carefully in order that he might present a complete list of inadequacies to board members Wednesday.

"I don't know what to say. . . They were the most carefully planned specifications I've seen," Mr. Dawson said. He added that although there might be a "few minor discrepancies" in the plans, there were, in his opinion, no flaws which could not be corrected quickly and without causing undue further delay.

Mr. Hubbard reminded Mr. Dawson that the discrepancies should not have existed at this stage since he (Dawson) should have kept in closer contact with Mr. Fowler.

Mr. Fowler had appeared at a board meeting in July and

Public Meeting On Train Service Set Wednesday

A public meeting to discuss methods of combating the decision of the L and N Railroad to seek to discontinue the commuter train between Ocean Springs and New Orleans has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday in Bay High School Auditorium. Rudolph Vorbusch, chairman of the Gulf Coast Commuters Association, has announced.

The railroad company announced plans last week to seek Interstate Commerce Commission authority to discontinue the operation of L and N passenger trains Nos. 9 and 12, between Ocean Springs and New Orleans, Jan. 2. The railroad said losses from operations of the trains in 1957 amounted to $70,000.

The board of directors of the Commuters Association met Friday at New Orleans to consider the problems raised by the railroad's decision. At the meeting it was stressed that more than 100 commuters use the train year-round.

These commuters, Mr. Vorbusch said, have an average income of $6,000, which means that at least $600,000 income is brought to the coast, especially in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland area, by commuters. During the summer, the chairman added, as many as 300 commuters use the train daily.

Mr. Vorbusch said interested citizens could protest the action by writing to the secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington 25, D.C.

Local reaction to the move included a statement by the Commuters Association and a resolution, which has been sent to the Interstate Commerce Commission, by the Rotary Club.

The Commuters Assn. statement:

"The Commuters are definitely not in accord with recent published releases outlining the railroad's determination to discontinue a vital public service.

"The commuters themselves are not the only ones affected by this threatened consequence.

"Members of the Gulf Coast Commuters Association are urging everyone to be present at a public meeting to be held in Bay High School Auditorium on Wednesday, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m.

"As a merchant, property owner, taxpayer or resident of this community, you owe it to yourselves, your businesses, your investments, and the welfare of your families and home-towns to be in attendance at this meeting.

"The events leading up to the railroad's traumatic decision will be aired as well as the steps which have been taken up to now

TRIUMPHAL RECOVERY—Toney Bourgeois (right) arrived in a wheel chair to be sworn in by Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell at Tuesday's first meeting of the newly elected Waveland board of aldermen and mayor. Mr. Bourgeois, of Ward 3, was the only alderman re-elected this year, despite the fact that he was hospitalized during the primary election Nov. 4 as a result of serious injuries received while on duty as a night-jailer during October. Mr. Bourgeois was brutally beaten by two prisoners who escaped with his car to Oklahoma City where they were recaptured by FBI authorities.

Ladner Renamed In Waveland Vote, Appoints Officers

Waveland Mayor Garfield J. Ladner was re-elected with 74 votes in Tuesday's general municipal election. In the Nov. 4 Democratic primary election Mayor Ladner defeated his only opponent, Cornelius Herlihy, by a vote of 287 to 179.

Aldermen with vote totals are William A. Ruhr, 5, Ward 1; Dominic Sonier, 21, Ward 2; Toney Bourgeois, 29, Ward 3; and Albert Grass, 21, Ward 4.

Mr. Bourgeois, who was brutally beaten by two escapers from Hancock County Jail while on duty as night jailer in October, arrived at the first meeting of the board Tuesday night in a wheel chair in greatly improved condition. He was the only alderman re-elected from last year's board.

Other officers officially elected Tuesday and their vote totals are Willie Bourgeois, 78, city treasurer; Fred J. Bourgeois, 57, marshal and tax collector, and Mrs. Ruth McIlwain, Mrs. Adeline Samuels, Mrs. Thelma Henley, Harry Lynch and Mrs. Fred Bourgeois, 2 vice each, municipal Democratic executive committee members.

Mayor Ladner appointed Dan M. Russell Jr., attorney for the city. Mr. Russell replaces Lucian Cox. In other appointments C. O. Dufour was named secretary and Aldermen Sonier and Grass were named mayor pro tem 1 and 2, respectively.

Paul Henley, Charleston Ladner and Alvin Ladner were named election commissioners. Mrs. Henley was named clerk of the gas and water system.

The board approved reappointment of Mayor Ladner as manager of the city gas and water systems. The offices of deputy clerk to the tax assessor and sanitation inspector were eliminated by motion of the board. The meeting was recessed until Tuesday night.

Runaway Youths Are Apprehended

Two runaway Louisiana youths were apprehended Monday morning at the Phillips 66 service station on US-90 by Calais Sheriff's Deputy Carl Garcia and returned to their homes by their parents, Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner Jr. said.

The youths, Claude C. Gosselin, 15, Del Cambre, La., and Clarence "Marshall" 14, New Iberia, La., left their homes at approximately 6:30 p.m. Sunday in a 1958 Ford owned by Gosselin's parents. The boys said Deputy Garcia.

The parents had issued an alarm to surrounding police authorities. They admitted their identities when questioned by Deputy Garcia.

MISS LOUISE CRAWFORD STANDS AMONG HER BOOKS

Miss Louise Crawford Recalls Early Days

Library Founder To Retire

For many book lovers the end of an era will be marked by the beginning of the New Year when Miss Louise Crawford, founder of the 24-year-old City-County Memorial Library, retires.

Miss Crawford started the library in 1934 in two rent free rooms above the Hancock County Bank, using $12 from 12 sources. Now the books fill six rooms of the white frame building owned by the library on Court St.

Visitors today may see two complete $1,000 collections, a variety of unusually rare volumes, a well-stocked children's section and an up to date selection of current books in the 15,000-volume library.

Present plans for an eventual addition to the back room of the library remind Miss Crawford of the early days of the library, which was constantly growing too big for its confines. After 10 overcrowded years above the bank, the library was moved to a large room in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Five years ago Miss Ruth Knowles offered two complete collections, one of the works of Henry James and one of the Heritage Series, both valued at $1,000 each, to the library on condition that it be moved to a larger, more central location.

Miss Knowles, who had spent her life savings on the books, was forced to store them in Gulfport and found storage charges too high. The collection was put on the shelves of the newly purchased library, in memory of the late Mrs. Caroline Dale Snedeker, a cousin of Miss Crawford and, at the time, the oldest living Doubleday Publishing Co. author. Mrs. Snedeker had given valuable collection of books to Miss Knowles.

With donations ranging from $1,000 to 50 cents, a down payment was made on the $7,800 building now occupied. Then, says Miss Crawford, "The city

Youth Center Fund Drive Is Lagging

"We have collected only $87 this week in our annual Youth Center fund drive," J. W. Watts Jr., chairman, said today.

"That means that the drive is lagging and we are far short of the $1,500 goal we have set for operation of the Center next year," Mr. Watts continued.

The popular gathering place for young persons of the area is operated solely on funds derived from public subscription and the city.

The money collected this week brings the total collected so far to $277.

City Commissioner J. Cyril Glover, treasurer, announced these donations to Tuesday: Justice of the Peace Nolan S. Ladner and Mrs. Ladner, $5; Mr. and Mrs. David Poindexter, $5; Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Co., $10; Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Treutel, $5; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCutcheon, $5; Mr. and Mrs. John J. McDonald, $15; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDonald Sr., $15; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Reuff, $5; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McDougall, $5; Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Sarraf, $5; Mrs. Joseph N. Edwards, $5; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hubbard Jr., $5; Robert L. Genin, $2.

Piece of Concrete Is Thrown At Car

Three youths, reportedly between 9 and 12 years old, are sought by city police on suspicion of vandalism, Chief Alcine E. Saucier said.

The incident, reported by Patrolman Arthur "Pat" Garcia, occurred at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday when the youths threw a piece of concrete 9 to 10 inches in diameter at a 1956 Oldsmobile being driven across the Bay St. Louis toll bridge by Mrs. J. C. Box of Pensacola, Fla.

Mrs. J. P. Blalock of Pensacola, owner of the car, was a passenger. The concrete missed the car windows but struck the oil pan and oil pump beneath the car. The women were not able to give further description of the boys, Patrolman Garcia said.

OPENING NUMBER—"It's a Treat To Beat Your Feet in the Mississippi Mud," sang the chorus as the curtain rose on the Pink Horse Cabaret Minstrel Show Nov. 21 and 22 in Bay High School auditorium. The rollicking variety show was presented by Christ Episcopal Day School PTA under the direction of Mrs. Frank Kiefer. Performances by local talent included songs, dances, a magic act, several chorus numbers.

Problems of the Aged

Thanks to advances in the standards of medical care, in nutrition, and in other allied arts and sciences, life expectancy in this country has been greatly increased. This means that the proportion of elderly persons in the population is far larger than it used to be, and is steadily increasing.

We have, as a consequence, developed a comparatively new set of problems—the health problem of the aged. In recognition of this fact a Joint Council for the Health Care of the Aged was formed last April, and plans currently are being developed for a national conference to be held next spring.

The council is made up of eminently qualified organizations—the American Dental Association, the American Hospital Association, the American Medical Association and the American Nursing Home Association. It has laid down five specific objectives: to identify and analyze the health needs of the aged; to appraise available health resources for the aged; to develop programs to foster the best possible health care for the aged; to foster effective methods of payment for this care; and finally, to foster health-education programs of the aged.

This is a sound approach to the problems involved, and splendid results can be anticipated. A good many persons, when issues of the sort arise, tend to take the attitude of "let the government solve them." And this, as we should have learned by now, often creates worse and more lasting problems than those that need solving in the first place.

The two-cent daily newspaper used to be common in this country, but now it has gone with the wind. The last of these papers, the Hanover, Penn., Evening-Sun, has raised its prices to five cents.

A GLOOMY PROSPECT

In June of 1958, the federal debt had reached a staggering figure of $276.4 billion. Have you ever wondered just who "holds the bag" on this huge debt? If so, the table below gives that information. The figures are in round billions of dollars.

Individuals	166
Commercial Banks	65
Whole Sav's Investment Accounts	56
Federal Reserve Banks	26
State and Local Gov'ts	16
Others	16
Corporations	43
Insurance Companies	12
Mutual Savings Banks	7

At the end of September the federal debt had climbed further to $277.1 billion and is expected to reach $283 billion by next June 30.

Rather, frightening isn't it? "I didn't see nothing yet," members of the 86th Congress elected Nov. 4 and which will take over in January, 1959, already have indicated that there will be a regular deluge of raids on the public treasury for more, and more, "pie-in-the-sky." The Eisenhower administration, even if it should become so minded, will be powerless to stem the tide. The spenders in Congress are confident they'll be able to muster the necessary two-thirds to override any White House veto.

This is a gloomy prospect that lies ahead for those who believe in government economy and balanced budgets.

My Favorite Prayer

By JOHN CHARLES DALY
Vice President, American Broadcasting Co., New York, N.Y.

Oh, Lord, be my shepherd that I shall not want.
Make me to lie down in green pastures: lead me beside the still waters.

Restore my soul: lead me in the paths of righteousness for Thy name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; and Thy rod and Thy staff do comfort me.

Prepare a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: anoint my head with oil so that my cup runneth over.

Then, surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever. (Adapted from the 23rd Psalm.)

Quickies

The opening phrase most often spoken on the telephone is credited to the man who gave us this instrument. "Thomas A. Edison, when once asked 'Are you ready to talk?'" grabbed a receiver and shouted into the transmitter the historic first "hello."

"Hello" has since followed the telephone into virtually every civilized country.

Trade names are curious words, often with no apparent derivation. "Kodak" for example was the result of George Eastman's experimenting with hundreds of combinations of letters in an effort to coin a short, punchy and easily remembered trade mark for his camera.

Hidden Viruses Are Linked To Much Unseen Damage

Second of three articles on viruses, the hidden danger, what is being done about them and even what good they may do. By Dr. Henry W. Kumm, chief of virus research for the National Foundation, which in 1959 aids arthritis, virus diseases, birth defects and disorders of the central nervous system to its unfinished battle against polio.

By DR. HENRY W. KUMM

Can viruses which cause apparently mild childhood illness make people sick years after when they have grown up? This is one question scientists under National Foundation grants now are trying to answer.

The idea seems almost ridiculous at first. After all, we are all familiar with a virus disease like measles. Most of us had measles when we were young. We got sick; then we got well. But did we really get totally well?

Measles can sometimes be very serious. Occasionally the virus gets into the central nervous system (which means the brain and spinal cord) and causes inflammation. This is called encephalitis and can be an extremely bad thing. It can cause paralysis or the loss of functions directed by the brain. For instance, severe encephalitis occurring during an attack of measles last year has been reported.

But what about youngsters who do not get measles encephalitis? Do some of them nevertheless have some damage to their central nervous systems which may cause disability under the stresses of later life? There is reason to think that this may happen. Dr. Jonas E. Salk, who developed the vaccine against polio (which is itself a central nervous system disease), believes that such damage may indeed occur. And he believes that what is needed is a vaccine or vaccine to protect against these virus diseases which sometimes produce central nervous system diseases, even those which are apparently mild childhood illnesses. He is working on this problem with March of Dimes support.

There is another attack on this problem now being conducted in Chicago. There, Dr. Frederick Gibbs and his associates at the Brain Research Foundation have been given a March of Dimes grant to study the brain waves of children. This is done by using a delicate electroencephalograph. It is a perfectly painless procedure, but it is already indicating that mild virus diseases may cause damage to the central nervous system.

But why should we worry about these problems? After all, the answer is that polio is now coming back. More to the point, the virus diseases which always remain at least in small amounts. And when virus remains there is at least some possibility that there may be damage.

One reason scientists study this way is because of growing understanding of the body's defense against viruses. In most cases, when we are invaded by viruses, we develop antibodies as a defense mechanism. These antibodies are really small units of extremely complicated proteins which can destroy or neutralize the virus that is attacking.

But in many cases antibodies are still being produced in the human body as long as 70 years after the original virus attack. Many scientists now believe that this is so because a small amount of the original virus remains for life, still stimulating the body to produce antibodies.

Antibodies don't last long, a few weeks at most. All the antibodies you have now were produced within roughly a month of your last attack of measles.

The National Foundation is now conducting a study of the antibodies of children who have had measles.

The National Foundation is now conducting a study of the antibodies of children who have had measles. The study is being conducted in the areas of March of Dimes, which are polio, arthritis, birth defects.

Federal Order
Will Regulate
Milk Handling

Milk handling in the Mississippi Gulf Coast marketing area will be regulated under terms of a federal marketing order which became effective Monday, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced. But pricing provisions of the order, will not go into effect until Jan. 1.

Cleo C. Taylor of Jackson, will be administrator of the order. Mr. Taylor also is market administrator for the central Mississippi, Mississippi Delta and northern Louisiana federal milk marketing orders.

In announcing issuance of the new marketing order, the department said 392 producers, or 100 per cent of qualified producers voting in a recent referendum, expressed approval of the order. Approval by more than two-thirds of those voting was necessary for issuance of the order.

Federal milk marketing orders set minimum prices which handlers supplying specified marketing areas must pay producers for their milk. They do not regulate retail prices.

The Mississippi Gulf Coast marketing area is specified as the Mississippi counties of Hancock, Harrison, George, Green, Jackson, Pearl River and Stone.

All milk handled by those subject to the order will be classified as Class 1, all fluid (bottling) milk and cream, or as Class 11, milk used in making ice cream, cottage cheese and other manufactured dairy products.

The Class 1 prices will be the central Mississippi Class 1 price plus 10 cents. The Class 11 price will be the prices paid at four local manufacturing plants plus 10 cents during March through July and plus 20 cents in all other months.

The order calls for market-wide pooling. Under this arrangement, producers are paid for their milk at a uniform or "blend" price per hundredweight. This price is arrived at by "pooling" payments due from all handlers for all classes of milk.

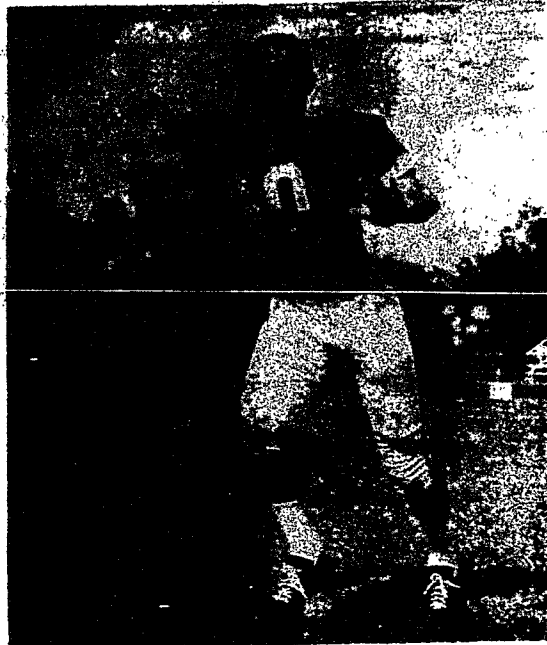

The provisions of the marketing order were formulated on the basis of evidence presented at a public hearing at Gulfport, April 15-18. Copies of the order may be obtained from the Dairy Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

The little scatback was hampered by leg injuries during the season and wasn't able to display his true potential. However, Rhodes chalked up a rushing average of 4.5 yards a carry, based on 108 net yards gained in 14 carries. He also caught three passes for a net gain of 12 yards and made good his two attempts for points after touchdowns. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willys Rhodes Jr. of Bay St. Louis.

Founder of Library Here To Retire With New Year

and county took pity on us. We were paying salaries of myself and my assistant and maintaining the library with a total of $30 in city and county funds. When the county began giving us $300 per month and the city $200 per month we were able to put some of the money aside and complete payment on the mortgage in two years."

The next year a small screened porch in back was walled in and enlarged. "Now we're saving for an addition to that room," Miss Crawford said.

An important part of any library is its children's section, since the users of this section are having their earliest experiences with reading. Junior circulation at this library is high, with from one-third to one-half of the books circulated coming under the heading of non-fiction.

The rare books are especially treasured by Miss Crawford, known to her friends as "Weezy."

One, dated 1697, titled "Le Sainct Evangile de Jesus Christ Selon St. Jean," is really a traveling safe in disguise. The book ends abruptly on page 91 and the reader discovers that the rest of the "pages" are really a concealed box for carrying valuables. These books were used frequently by travelers, Miss Crawford says, as they could actually pretend to be reading them on a trip.

The inscription penned on the inside cover of a book of Keats' poetry is "To My Lily From O.M. Knas 1900." O.M. is the name by which author John Rodin was known to his daughter, Lily.

Miss Crawford's only leave of absence during her years with the library was a trip in 1934 and 1935 to England.

After her retirement Jan. 1 Miss Crawford said she plans to stay in Bay St. Louis and "be lazy."

At PRJC Ladner majored in social science and was a first string member of the football and basketball teams. When he was graduated in 1957, he accepted an office position with Bethlehem Supply Co., a subsidiary of Esso Corp., located at Laurel, Miss. He remained with Bethlehem until last spring. The scholarship will enable Ladner to complete his education and he plans to major in social science and minor in physical education and personnel management. He has ambitions to teach and coach upon graduation from college.

Power Squadron To Conduct Piloting Course in January

A carefully planned course in piloting will be conducted early in January by the Mississippi Coast Power Squadron under the sponsorship of the Gulfport Yacht Club.

Classes are to be conducted once a week for 10 weeks at the yacht club and are open to the interested general public.

Announcement of the course, intended to promote skills and safety afloat among small boatmen, was made today by Commander E. V. Martin of the squadron. He said that exact dates for the course will be announced in the next few days, after further conferences with officials of the Yacht Club, who have pledged their complete cooperation.

Commander Martin said that the squadron "anticipates the attendance of the largest class in our history and we are making careful preparations to accommodate a record number."

He added that "each instructor among the several who will take part is especially qualified in the field upon which he has been selected to lecture, and each will be equipped with various visual aids for his subject."

The officer explained that the course is offered without charge or obligation. He said those who pass the examination will be eligible to membership in the squadron.

"Those who are accepted for membership in the squadron," Commander Martin noted, "will be eligible to continue their studies and to master advanced courses which will add greatly to their safety afloat as well as to their enjoyment of boating. These further studies include seamanship, advanced piloting, navigation, weather and engine maintenance."

"I would like to stress that squadron membership, however, is a privilege and not an obligation for those taking the course."

"I would also like to thank the Gulfport Yacht Club for making available to us, for the conduct of the piloting course, their excellent facilities."

Interested persons should get in touch with the squadron secretary, E. M. George, 1302 Lafayette Street, Biloxi.

The coast squadron of the United States Power Squadrons, numbering 230, has 41,000 members. The association of boaters is devoted to the promotion of good citizenship and general ship afloat, it further promotes safety by offering its courses in boating.

Yule Party of Legion Auxiliary Is Monday

Regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be the annual Christmas party at 8 p.m. Monday in the Legion and an exchange of gifts among members.

Weddings

Macuick-Breland

In a quiet but impressive ceremony in the home of her parents, Miss Marilyn Marie Breland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Breland, became the bride of Anthony Francis Macuick of Camp Lejeune, N.C., at 8 p.m. Friday.

The Rev. S. P. Powell, pastor of the McNeill Baptist Church, performed the double ring ceremony before the fireplace of the home. Two tall baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums were placed on either side of the fireplace. An arrangement of similar flowers interspersed with greenery was placed before the large mirror above the mantel, and single crystal candelabra holding white candles flanked the arrangement.

For her wedding, the bride selected a two-piece model of steel gray silk faille made with bracelet length sleeves. Accessing the ensemble were navy shoes and purse, and a small beige hat trimmed with veiling. She wore a single white orchid pinned to the jacket of her suit.

The bride's twin sister, Mrs. John Koennig Jr., was her only attendant. She wore a suit of powder blue with navy blue accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

A reception was held after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Breland and members of the wedding party were assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Burkin, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Rita Martin, Mrs. Oscar Breland, an aunt of the bride, served punch and Mrs. William E. Breland Jr. was in charge of the bride's register.

An imported white lace cloth over pink satin covered the serving table in the dining room. In the center of the table was a two-tiered wedding cake decorated with roses and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Greenery encircled the cake and crystal epergne candelabra holding white tapers and white carnations were placed on each side of the cake.

The bride wore her wedding outfit for traveling. The young couple's honeymoon destination was Cleveland, Ohio, the bridegroom's former home. Upon their return, they plan to make their home at New York City.

Mrs. Macuick is a graduate of Bay High School. The bridegroom was graduated from Cleveland schools, served in the Korean conflict and is a member of the U.S. Army.

MRS. VERNON C. PARKER
The former Gertrude Burke

Parker-Burke

St. Alice's Catholic Church at Fort Worth, Tex., was the setting of the wedding of Miss Gertrude Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burke of 3820 Laclede Ave., St. Louis, Mo., and Lt. Vernon C. Parker of 223 Washington St., Bay St. Louis, Nov. 29. Lt. Parker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Parker.

White winter blossoms and greenery adorned the altar of the church and provided a beautiful background for the young couple as they exchanged their vows before the Rev. Joseph Weinmayer, pastor of the church. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

Garden Club Displays Blue Ribbon Scrapbook

Bay-Waveland Garden Club scrapbook for 1957-58, compiled by Mrs. Frank Embrey, is on display at the City-County Memorial Library. The program was presented by Mesdames George Schilling, Paul Kimbrell and Mrs. Robin. Mrs. O. J. Nitzsche and Mrs. David Poindexter were introduced as guests and there were 22 present including the visitors.

Weddings

Hicks-Dupaquier

One of the most prominent weddings of the holiday season was solemnized Saturday afternoon in Christ Episcopal Church when Miss Alyce Dupaquier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter John Dupaquier of Bay St. Louis and New Orleans, became the bride of Lorne William Hicks, Ensign, United States Naval Reserve.

Mr. Hicks is the son of Mrs. Harry William Hicks and the late Mr. Hicks of Jackson Heights, N. Y.

The Rev. Charles R. Johnson, rector, performed the double ring ceremony before members of the immediate families.

Five branched golden candelabra holding lighted white cathedral tapers and two vases of white chrysanthemums adorned the altar. Alfred Watts, a cousin of the bride, served as acolyte for the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, John Dupaquier of Baton Rouge, a brother of the bride, presented a program of organ music. The traditional wedding marches were played as the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore an exquisite original wedding gown of pure white raw silk. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice and a Sabrina neckline trimmed with appliques of Alencon lace frosted with iridescent sequins.

The very bouffant skirt of the gown was trimmed with similar appliques and sequins and was gathered onto the bodice, ending in the back in a cathedral train. She wore a Juliet cap of Alencon lace and a fingertip length veil of French illusion and carried a star shaped bouquet of lilies of the valley backed with a ruffle of tulle.

Gloria Clay, Mr. Mauldin Will Be Wed

Of interest this week is the announcement made by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Clay of Laurel, of the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Gloria, to Talmage Lamar Mauldin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mauldin, also of Laurel.

The wedding will be solemnized in First Baptist Church at Sharon at 3 p.m., Dec. 21.

No invitations are being sent and friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Miss Clay was graduated from Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg with a bachelor of science degree in home economics. She was a member of Delta Zeta social sorority, Kappa Omicron Phi honorary fraternity and the Home Economics Club.

Before assuming her position as home demonstration agent for Hancock County, she was a member of the faculties of Collins and Pass Christian High Schools.

Mr. Mauldin was graduated from Mississippi Southern College and served two years with the U. S. Army in Germany. He is mathematics instructor at Bay High School.

City Echoes

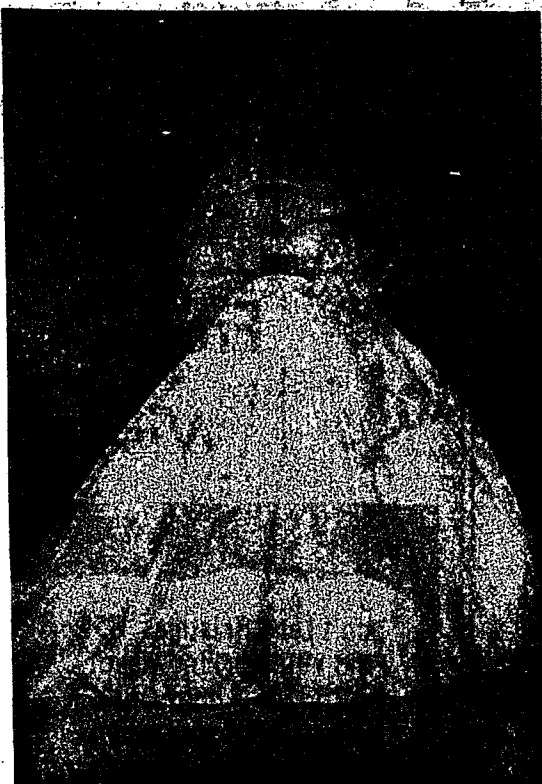

Mrs. George William Leopard has joined her husband, Commander Leopard, USN, and her son at Shreveport, La., after a visit of several weeks with her brother-in-law and sister, Capt. and Mrs. William Johns. The Leopard family plans to return to their home at Lexington Park, Md., in a short while. Guests of Capt. and Mrs. Johns for the Thanksgiving holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Koerner of New Orleans. Mrs. Koerner is the former Miss Peggy Johns.

Dr. and Mrs. John Griffin and family spent Thanksgiving Day at New Orleans where they were the guests of Mrs. Griffin's father, Lavelle Pigford, and Mrs. Pigford.

Mrs. Anise Deignan, R.N., nurse at St. Stanislaus School, spent Thanksgiving holidays at New Orleans with friends.

Mrs. Nellus Rhodes has been ill in her home on Main St.

Robert Sylvester is a patient in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Biloxi. His condition has been serious but members of his family report it is improving steadily.

MRS. LORNE WILLIAM HICKS
The former Alyce Dupaquier

Mrs. James Colhune of New Orleans was the matron of honor and Miss Nanette Penrose of Waveland, a cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor.

They wore identical patio length gowns of pale blue silk taffeta. The dresses were made with high necklines and were sleeveless. For special back interest, the low necklines were trimmed with large, flat bows which ended in two floating panels. Matching satin slippers complemented the dresses. They wore half wreaths of fresh English ivy in their hair and carried large bouquets of russet chrysanthemums and ivy.

Mr. Hicks had as his best man, Kenneth Johnson of Jackson Heights, N. Y., and as the groomsmen, James Colhune, Lieutenant, United States Naval Reserve, Algiers, La.

Ushers were Edouard Dupaquier and Hamilton Haughton, both of New Orleans.

The parents of the bride entertained at a large reception in the Bay Waveland Yacht Club after the religious rites. Arrangements of white blossoms adorned the main lounge of the club. Banking the mantel were profusions of white pompon mums and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dupaquier received her guests in a misty pink chiffon afternoon gown. The dress was made with a very full skirt and simple neckline. She wore a matching hat, pink satin slippers and a corsage bouquet of pink orchids.

The bridegroom's mother selected an after-five model of Alice blue peau de soie, a matching blue lace hat trimmed with chiffon, and blue accessories. Her corsage was pink orchids.

The cake table was covered with an imported white linen cutwork cloth and was centered with a five-tiered wedding cake. Branched silver candelabra trimmed with white blooms were placed on either side. The punch table was trimmed similarly and held a large crystal punch bowl.

For her wedding trip to New York and Canada, Mrs. Hicks chose a brown woolen suit flecked with green, brown alligator purse and shoes, and a tiny green feathered hat. At one shoulder, was pinned a corsage of white orchids.

Upon their return, the young couple will be at home at the Algiers, La., Naval Station where

Mr. Hicks is serving on the commandant's staff as assistant inactive personnel officer for the Eighth Naval District.

Mrs. Hicks is a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy and attended Louisiana State University. Her mother is the former Miss Alice Chapman, a member of a pioneer Hancock County family.

A graduate of the College of William and Mary, Mr. Hicks is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Out of town guests included Pierre Maurice and Miss Carolyn Maurice, Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Lillian Ten Eyck, New York City, and a host of friends and relatives from Louisiana and Mississippi.

Small Woodlot Owners Invited to State Session

Local small woodlot owners will have an opportunity to contribute their opinions on the problems of forestry in Mississippi during a public meeting on small woodlot problems beginning at 9 a.m. Tuesday in the Heidelberg Hotel at Jackson, Marion Parker, area forester, said today. Mississippi Forestry Commission and the U.S. Forest Service are sponsoring the conference.

Mr. Parker explained that the state's 133,292 owners of 5,000 or fewer acres of timberland own 70 per cent of the state's 17 million acres of commercial forest land. However, these small woodlots, with an average of 86 acres of timberland, are producing less than one-half of Mississippi's timber supply.

Hospital Plans Due Dec. 12

urged board members to fire Mr. Dawson in view of the architect's slowness in completing plans. When Mr. Dawson said at that meeting he had had no written criticism of plans from Mr. Fowler at that stage, Mr. Fowler said that Mr. Dawson had communicated with him only by telephone and that he could not reply in writing to a telephone conversation.

Mr. Dawson was reminded that ground was broken last week on a 30-bed Monticello, Miss., hospital which received a Hill-Burton grant the same day the Hancock County grant was approved.

The architect had promised to complete the plans by Sept. 12 when they were not ready in July, as originally promised. Later he said he had every reason to believe that advertisement for bids would begin by Oct. 15, the date he originally had set for such action.

Oct. 20 Mr. Dawson appeared before the board and promised the plans would be completed by the end of that week. Nov. 3 he promised to complete them by Nov. 5.

In other business the supervisors agreed to consider the request of sanitation officer Wayne Alliston and public health officer Dr. James T. Maddux for new facilities for the public health department.

A rough drawing of a seven-room steel building with an estimated cost of $15,000 was shown to the supervisors. Mr. Alliston and Dr. Maddux explained that the proposed steel building, designed by Gulfport architect Charles Proffier, would be much less expensive than a brick veneer one.

The supervisors agreed to consider the problem further at the next meeting.

A request for $100 advertisement in the football program for the Pearl River Junior College appearance in the Hospitality Bowl at Gulfport was vetoed by the supervisors on grounds the sum requested could not justifiably be termed advertisement. Supervisor Hubbard said that purchase of space would set a precedent, making it impossible to refuse funds to other organizations with similar requests.

by the Gulf Coast Commuters Association.

"The contingent suffering which may be borne by Bay St. Louis citizens will be discussed in detail. This association believes that every civic-minded, responsible citizen of the community has a stake in the future of this vital transportation link."

A portion of the telegram sent by the Rotary Club to the Interstate Commerce Commission said:

"It is hereby resolved that the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club hereby voices its objection to any petition that might be filed with the Interstate Commerce Department for the discontinuance of said trains Nos. 9 and 12 and that should any petition be filed that said organization, hereby urgently petitions the Interstate Commerce Department to consider the needs and necessity of such service to the Gulf Coast area, which has helped to build up the entire L and N Railroad system throughout the years, and that discontinuance of such services by the same railroad company would cause great damage to the users of said railroad system from this area, and to all the communities along the Gulf Coast of Mississippi."

Contributions and pledges called to more than $1,000 for a public meeting Wednesday called by the Gulf Coast Commuters Association to support in the battle to delay discontinuance of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. commuter trains Nos. 9 and 12 between Bay Springs and New Orleans. Robert Vorbusch of Waveland, president and New Orleans attorney, told more than

WATER PROTEST- Robert Vorbusch, president of the Gulf Coast Commuters Assn., conducted a meeting of more than 100 commuters, local businessmen and governing officials Wednesday night to propose a campaign to force proposed discontinuance of L and N commuter trains.

Protest Voiced Supervisors Supervisors have been sent by the County Board of Supervisors to the president of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co. and the Interstate Commerce Commission to seek ICC authority to operate the L and N commuter trains Nos. 9 and 12 between Bay Springs and New Orleans.

Supervisor R. G. Hubbard suggested and board members agreed that the railroad should be informed of the economic damage to Gulf Coast communities which discontinuance of the trains would cause.

Dawsey of Logtown urged the board to re-examine for damages to the car by timbers on the bridge Nov. 29, 1957, and agreed that payment for an undetected bridge at the time of the accident because the car was damaged. Board members agreed to investigate the bridge.

Members from Gulfport were told that the railroad was advertising a school annual publication and that such advertising should be justified in the received, as all advertising must be since the ruling.

Meeting, Saturday, Dec. 6, 1958, 8 p.m., Bay-Waveland, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the club and will be held at the club.
